Prisoner Letter Writing "First Saturday of every month!" <http://spartacusbooks.net/events>
July 6, August 3 (3-5pm) Spartacus Books, 3378 Findlay Street, Vancouver, BC V5N 4E7
"Come to Spartacus Books to write a letter to a prisoner pen-pal. We can help you find a pen-pal if you've never had one before. We also have stamps, envelopes, and guidelines for how to write a letter.
As always, there's free coffee and tea." <https://facebook.com/events/296491164409741>

Write to Detainee by End Immigration Detention Network <https://endimmigrationdetention.com> send letters of support inside the prison walls to a detainee from Nigeria being held in Ontario who has spoken up against the immigration detention system and has consented to receiving mail:
Akin Akinsuyi, Toronto East Detention Centre, 55 Civic Road, Scarborough, ON M1L 2K9
"Prisons are notorious for censoring mail, especially mail with perceived political or 'anti-social' content.
There is no guarantee that messages will make it inside. However, prisoners say that receiving mail is an incredible way for them to feel supported by and connected to the outside world. So let's try! Keep messages simple, direct, and 'clean' (no cuss words)." <https://facebook.com/endimmigrationdetention>

Sign petition by Detained Migrant Solidarity Committee <https://twitter.com/dmscelpaso>
"Free Jesús Lorenzo-Ávila from physical abuse and retaliation" "Beaten and held in retaliatory solitary for months based on false charges. He is not safe in ICE [US immigration] detention"

“Take Action: Six Palestinian prisoners on hunger strike against administrative detention!”

“There are currently six Palestinian prisoners engaged in hunger strikes inside Israeli prison. They are striking against administrative detention, imprisonment without charge and without trial, indefinitely renewable for periods of up to six months at a time. These prisoners have been on hunger strike for weeks and are suffering from severe health consequences; their bodies and lives are on the line to demand their freedom.”

“Write letters and make phone calls to... Demand your government ... put pressure on Israel to end the policy of administrative detention, the imprisonment of Palestinians without charge or trial. ... Call during...regular office hours...Canadian Foreign Minister Chrystia Freeland: +1-613-992-5234” [write Minister Freeland postage-free from within Canada: House of Commons, Ottawa, ON K1A 0A6] Samidoun Palestinian Prisoner Solidarity Network <https://samidoun.net>

2018 Prison Strike Solidarity Letters “prisoners are facing repression because of alleged participation in or planning for the 2018 nationwide prisoner strike. Please send them letters of love and support” “When writing letters, make no assumptions. Keep your statements general, or unrelated to the strike, as discussing it or their role might get your letter blocked, or enable further action against them” <https://incarceratedworkers.org/prison-strike-letters>

PRISONER COMMITTEES' support groups

Joint Effort PO Box 78005, 1755 East Broadway, Vancouver, BC Coast Salish Territory V5N 5W1
“women in prison abolitionist group involved in solidarity work with women prisoners in the Lower Mainland. “women who work to create contacts between women in prison and various community organizations outside the prison.

“On the ‘inside’ our work consists of organizing discussion groups, various workshops and music, theatre and sports events. We work with the Inmate’s Committee and the Native Sisterhood to support their activities in any way that we can. In our weekly visits we try to create a space where women from ‘inside’ and ‘outside’ can communicate around issues of mutual interest, where respect and confidentiality are practiced and where a woman can speak her mind and be supported.

“On the ‘outside’, Joint Effort is involved in providing public information about the situation of women in prison as well as lobbying the government on various issues” “independent group that is not associated with the prison or the church. We are unpaid workers and the group does not receive any government or institutional funding.” jointeffort@prisonjustice.ca

Lucasville Amnesty Ohio, USA

"The Lucasville Uprising was a rebellion against oppressive and racist policies at the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility (SOCF) in Lucasville, Ohio. Nine inmates and one guard died during the uprising in April of 1993. Today, many people are serving time or condemned to death by the state of Ohio in relation to the uprising. We demand amnesty for all of these inmates. The conditions at SOCF were (and still are) intolerable and unconscionable."

Undocumented: The Architecture of Migrant Detention (Special Edition) by Tings Chak

“Using comics, interviews, and architectural sketches, ‘Undocumented’ explores a growing industry in an era of militarized borders, state surveillance, and criminalized migration. With a focused study on Canada’s migrant detention system, where detainees are often held in maximum security prisons without charges for indefinite periods of time, ‘Undocumented’ draws chilling conclusions about the societies that tolerate these punitive spaces of confinement.” Proceeds from the sale of each book go to End Immigration Detention Network

Through 100% prisoner-directed efforts, we recruit, educate, and organize incarcerated people to fight for a new world - a just world - a world without prisons. Our objectives are to end prison slavery, to gain full recognition of prisoners' inalienable human rights, and to ultimately abolish the entire Prison-Industrial Complex. We seek to divest money and resources away from prisons, police, mass surveillance, and militarism in order to reinvest those resources into communities that have been systematically plundered and enslaved by the forces of American colonialism, racism, and capitalism. They Made Me An Outlaw! by Bill Lightbown

"Bill came into the world April 14, 1927. Denied Indian Status because his Kutenai mother married a non-native man, Bill's experience of discrimination and displacement was a defining force. His fight for freedom began when he was jailed for vagrancy (being an Indian in an alley at night). After breaking out of jail, twice, he soon got involved in politics. His work for Indigenous Peoples' organizations, including co-founding the United Native Nations, spans more than 70 years." <https://electromagneticprint.com/bill-lightbown>

Ongoing Genocide caused by Judicial Suppression of the "Existing" Aboriginal Rights by Bruce Clark "Dr. Clark shows that constitutional fraud and usurpation-as-genocide continue as the modus operandi of the Canadian settler-state. Described by the Secwepemc traditionalist elder Wolverine as 'the most dangerous lawyer in Canada,' Clark exposes the method of this country's ongoing imposition of conditions calculated to bring about the destruction of native groups; causing physical and mental harm; and committing genocide."

We seek to advance justices that reflect opportunities to learn, grow, and create”

“This includes 1) raising awareness of the current barriers to justice and struggles of people in the criminal justice system; 2) sharing information on resources and supports available to those in the current system; and 3) co-creating ideas and spaces for alternative forms of justice and accountability to emerge. Research tells us that a criminal model and punitive response to justice segregates people and does not address the root causes of social harms”

While the Liberal government is attempting to spin this project as a more humane way to detain migrants, we call it what it is — a prison, and know that this is simply prettier window dressing on a violent system of imprisonment and deportation, one that keeps people locked in cages while tearing apart families and communities. We want a world without prisons or colonial borders, a world where people, not states, can decide how they can move and where they can stay.
